REFUND POLICY

Version 1.0 | Effective Date: 15 August 2026 | Vero360 Limited

This Refund Policy (the "Policy") governs all refunds arising from transactions concluded on the Vero360 mobile super-application (the "Platform"), operated by Vero360 Limited, a company duly incorporated in the Republic of Malawi under registration number COY-J7RCG5G ("Vero360", "the Company", "the Platform Operator"). This Policy shall be read together with the Platform User Agreement, the Merchant Terms and Conditions, the Courier Partner Service Level Agreement, the Provider Onboarding Agreement, and the Subscription and Payment Policy, each as amended from time to time.

1. Purpose and Scope

- 1.1 The purpose of this Policy is to set out, in a clear and consistent manner, the circumstances under which a User is entitled to a refund of monies paid through the Platform, the process by which such refunds shall be requested and processed, and the circumstances in which a refund shall not be granted.
- 1.2 This Policy shall apply to all transactions concluded through the Platform across all service verticals offered by Vero360, including ride-hailing services, food delivery, parcel delivery, e-commerce (marketplace goods), accommodation bookings, and other service bookings facilitated through the Platform.
- 1.3 This Policy shall apply to transactions between a User and a Merchant, Provider, Driver-Partner, or Courier Partner (collectively, "Sellers") facilitated through the Platform. Vero360 acts as an intermediary technology platform and payment facilitator, and refunds shall be processed in accordance with the mechanisms set out herein.

2. Definitions

- "User" means any natural or legal person who accesses or transacts on the Platform as a customer.
- "Seller" means, as the context requires, a Merchant, Accommodation Provider, Service Provider, Driver-Partner, or Courier Partner registered on the Platform.
- "Refund" means the reimbursement, in whole or in part, of monies paid by a User in respect of a transaction concluded through the Platform.
- "Order" means any request for goods, transport, delivery, accommodation, or services placed by a User through the Platform.
- "Non-Refundable Item" means any good or service expressly designated as such at the point of purchase.

3. General Principles

- 3.1 Refunds shall be granted only in accordance with the grounds expressly set out in this Policy. Vero360 shall assess each refund request on its merits, having regard to the evidence submitted by the User and, where applicable, the Seller.
- 3.2 Refunds shall be processed to the original payment method used by the User at the time of the transaction, save where the User elects, and Vero360 agrees, to credit an equivalent amount to the User's Platform wallet.

3.3 Where a Seller is found to be at fault, Vero360 reserves the right to recover the refunded amount from the Seller's settlement proceeds, in accordance with the applicable Merchant Terms and Conditions, Courier Partner Service Level Agreement, or Provider Onboarding Agreement.

3.4 Nothing in this Policy shall derogate from a User's statutory rights under the Consumer Protection Act and other applicable laws of the Republic of Malawi.

4. Refunds for Unsatisfactory Quality of Goods

4.1 A User shall be entitled to a refund where the goods received are not of satisfactory quality, including where the goods are defective, damaged, expired, materially different from the description provided on the Platform, or unfit for the purpose for which such goods are ordinarily supplied.

4.2 A claim under this Clause 4 shall be submitted through the Platform within forty-eight (48) hours of delivery, save for perishable goods (including prepared food), for which a claim shall be submitted within two (2) hours of delivery.

4.3 The User shall be required to submit supporting evidence of the quality defect, which may include photographic or video evidence, in support of the refund request.

4.4 Where a quality complaint is substantiated, Vero360 shall, at the User's election and subject to the nature of the goods, facilitate either a full refund, a partial refund reflecting the diminished value of the goods, or a replacement of the goods by the Seller.

4.5 A quality-based refund claim shall not be defeated merely because the User has opened, tasted, or used the goods to the extent reasonably necessary to ascertain the defect.

5. Refunds for Seller Failure

5.1 A User shall be entitled to a full refund where a Seller fails to fulfil an Order, including where the Seller:

- fails to deliver the goods, parcel, or meal within the timeframe communicated on the Platform, or at all;
- cancels a confirmed Order after payment has been made, other than for reasons attributable to the User;
- fails to render a booked service, including a confirmed ride, accommodation stay, or other service booking;
- delivers goods or provides a service materially different from what was ordered or confirmed on the Platform;
- is found, upon investigation, to have engaged in fraudulent or deceptive conduct in relation to the Order.

5.2 Where a Driver-Partner fails to arrive within a reasonable period following trip acceptance, or cancels a trip without reasonable cause after acceptance, the User shall be entitled to a full refund of any pre-paid fare, together with cancellation of any associated cancellation fee.

5.3 Where a Courier Partner fails to deliver a parcel, or a parcel is lost or damaged while in the custody of a Courier Partner, the User shall be entitled to a full refund of the delivery fee and, subject to the declared value of the parcel, compensation for the parcel in accordance with the Courier Partner Service Level Agreement.

5.4 Where an Accommodation Provider or Service Provider cancels a confirmed booking, the User shall be entitled to a full refund of all monies paid, irrespective of the cancellation tier that would otherwise have applied had the User initiated the cancellation.
